there was a time before i became a wizard

and, of course, a time before you were a cat...

J was free!! Having decided never to return to the kingdom... J found a home in Sacréve, and began teaching myself the mystical arts!

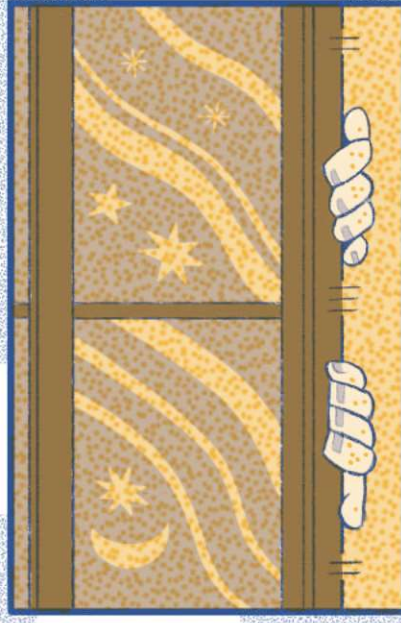

Magic, like all other arts, requires time and patience to perfect...

And practice, so much practice, for J sought to transform others the way that J had been transformed... to help others along the path that J had followed...

As my studies progressed, J learned faster with each passing day. One day soon, J knew, J would be a true wizard...

This, as you know, was when J met the love of my life...

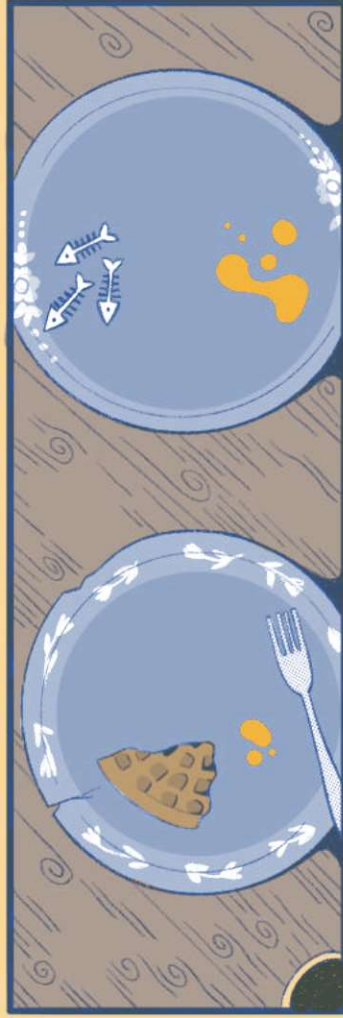

Any rogue worth his weight in tuna knows a wizard-in-training is poorer than a pauper... and yet you snuck in while J was deep-asleep in my studies and made yourself at home...

Of course, no one could blame me when J awake, saw the most beautiful man J had ever encountered, found my staff had been violated, and used the only spell that came to mind!

J know, J know, J messed up big time, but J will gladly spend my days working to reverse our curse so long as you're by my side!
